

"Before the game, some guys get pumped up by listening to music, while others listen to the noise of the crowd, some listen to the coach's pep talk, and some listen to nothing at all. There's only one sound that gets me pumped up, the sound of everyone who told me that I was too small to make it."

#26 Martin St. Louis

